

YOUR RESUME ALREADY HAS VISION.
BUT DOES
IT HAVE EARS?

You'd be surprised at what heads a resume these days. Internships, honor societies and extracurricular activities; they all belong in there somewhere. But what should come first? What will make you really shine?

How about Walt Disney World? Now whose eye wouldn't that catch? As the world's premier employer, Walt Disney World boasts Disney University and the world's most admired and duplicated management style. Both of these resources await you in a position as an hourly "cast member" at one of our three theme parks or 16 enchanting resorts.

Are you ready to transform your resume into a priceless resource that employers will be fighting over? Just remember, don't let your resume get too carried away boasting about your experiences as a cast member at Walt Disney World. After all, the whole thing is supposed to be only one page long. And you have to fit those darn internships and other stuff in there somewhere.

For more information on how to get your resume to grow EARS so that you can grow wings, please call the Walt Disney World Jobline Monday-Friday from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm or Saturday and Sunday from 12:00 noon to 5:00 pm.

WALT DISNEY World.

(407)828-1000

An Equal Opportunity Employer • Drawing Creativity From Diversity

For more information about jobs at Walt Disney World, visit Orlando Sentinel Online on AOL using keyword "Disney Jobs."

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

13

WANTED: ELEVATOR OPERATOR.

No experience necessary.
Must demonstrate ability to drop passengers 13 stories, without casualties. Uniform included.

The position of elevator operator for The Tower of Terror at the Disney MGM Studios awaits you. But if flirting with disaster and plummeting elevators isn't your style, how about running Space Mountain at the Magic Kingdom? Or a spot in one of the seventeen countries at EPCOT Center, or at one of our sixteen characteristic resorts? Whatever your pleasure, a match awaits you as an employee of Walt Disney World.

What other "Help Wanted" advertisement can promise you the prestigious Disney University along with working for the multibillion-dollar company that possesses the world's most sought-after management style? Working as a cast member for the country's premier employer will give you the kind of knowledge and experience everyone wants.

Still not convinced that an hourly position at Walt Disney World is for you and your future? Maybe a little 13-story drop will wake you up.

Or, you could call the Walt Disney World Jobline Monday-Friday from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm or Saturday and Sunday from 12:00 noon to 5:00 pm.

WALT DISNEY World.

(407)828-1000

An Equal Opportunity Employer • Drawing Creativity From Diversity

For more information about jobs at Walt Disney World, visit Orlando Sentinel Online on AOL using keyword "Disney Jobs."